

GENERAL PROVISIONS (Cont.)

SECTION 18 - MISCELLANEOUS SERVICES

18.1 Interception Service

The Company shall provide interception service whenever the central office facilities so permit, provided that such service shall not be rendered in the case of telephone numbers that are going to be changed and included in the next Directory Listing and the public is duly informed.

18.2 Foreign Exchange Service

The Company shall offer foreign exchange service among the central offices of its territory whenever facilities are available.

18.3 Residence Service

Where the customer has access to more than one residence main line at the same location, the same type of service will apply to all the lines.
