

GENERAL PROVISIONS (Cont.)

SECTION 24 - USE OF SERVICE

- 24.1 The use of business service and facilities is restricted to the customer, his agent and representatives, or as otherwise provided by this Tariff.
- 24.2 The use of residence service and facilities is restricted to the customer, members of the customer's domestic establishment, or as otherwise provided by this Tariff.
- 24.3 Services and facilities to which mileage rates apply are furnished only for communications in which the customer and the aforementioned persons have a direct interest and shall not be used for the collection, transmission or delivery of communications for others, except that when used for the transmission of communications to, from, within and between air carriers, the customer must be an aeronautical communications company licensed under the Aviation Services rules of the Federal Communications Commission to operate stations in the aeronautical mobile and fixed services.
- 24.4 The Telephone Company shall not be required to furnish service or facilities where the circumstances are such that the proposed use of the service or facilities would tend to adversely affect the efficiency of the Telephone Company's plant, property or service.
